REPORT OF SUPERINTENDENT

Cherokee County Public Schools had another great year serving our students.

Cherokee County School District was pleased to learn that five district schools received 2012-2013 Palmetto Gold or Silver Awards for performance or Closing the Achievement Gap. The Cherokee Technology Center and Northwest Elementary earned a Gold Award for General Performance. Palmetto Silver General Performance Awards were earned by Corinth, Draytonville, and Granard Middle. Granard also earned a Silver Closing the Achievement Award. Corinth, Draytonville, Goucher, and Northwest were also recognized as 2012-2013 Title One Reward Schools.

The Gaffney High School JROTC Unit received the Distinguished Unit Award for 2012-2013 from the United States Air Force, a distinction they have received for ten consecutive years. CMSgt. Randall Byars received the AFJROTC Outstanding Instructor award.

Four members of the class of 2013 graduated from high school with 12 years of perfect attendance. Also, the graduates received $12,915,810 in scholarship offers. The class of 2013 included 15 Palmetto Fellows and earned 355 Life Scholarships. Forty-four eighth grade students earned Junior Scholar recognition for PSAT scores. One seventh grade student was recognized as a Duke TIP scholar. Twenty-nine students achieved a perfect Score on one or more areas of PASS or HSAP.

The Gaffney High School Football team won the 4-A State Championship and three GHS students achieved championship honors in wrestling and track and field.

Mrs. Betsy Joliff was named District Teacher of the Year. Ms. Tracey Davis was recognized as Support Staff Employee of the Year. Mrs. Lisa Hannon was selected as the South Carolina Adult Education Director of the Year. Two schools, Alma Elementary and Gaffney Middle are partner schools with Winthrop University. Alma has also been designated as a Winthrop University Professional Development School.

Our district, working in collaboration with community stakeholders, created a five-year strategic plan that centered around four areas that include: technology, positive image, professionalism, and safety. We are excited about the direction that this plan will take us in the upcoming years and believe that our students will be the beneficiaries. This plan, coupled with a community initiative known as Know(2), an effort to change the mindset about education in our district, will be a catalyst to increase student achievement and help our district work toward continuous improvement.

Many factors contributed to a successful year: student effort, teacher dedication, parent support, and community help and input. We appreciate the effort, assistance, and support from everyone in making 2012-2013 a very successful school year for the students and staff of the Cherokee County School District. We are focused and committed to our students' future.

Quincie L. Moore, Superintendent
